

*The Tucson Swing Dance Club Welcomes
National West Coast Swing Champion*

Ben McHenry

Ben started dancing West Coast Swing when he was 11 years old and he quickly fell in love with the dance. He began competing at age 12. At age 16, Ben was competing in the All Star division and making a name for himself up and down the west coast. Over the past 5 years he has regularly placed in many All Star and Champions Competitions, including 2nd in the US Open Swing Dance Championships -- in the Junior Strictly Swing division in 2006 and in the All Star Jack and Jill division in 2008.

In his 5 years of teaching, Ben has had a major impact on many West Coast Swing dancers. Over the past 2 years living in Chico, CA, Ben has become a regular mentor for many fast-rising competitors on the circuit. He is looking forward to a lifetime of helping aspiring west coast swing dancers with his exceptional insights and passion for this dance.

Ben is available for private lessons.
